

Richard Paul's

Introduction

Today's presenter and his Duck Sense For Kids school assembly programs have educated, motivated and inspired over six hundred thousand students, parents and teachers throughout the Midwest.

He is an award winning author and ventriloquist whose goal today is to not only get us excited to read but also to demonstrate that reading an important part of life. You will learn that with every book you read you build character.

Get ready to learn... get ready to QUACK –UP

Please welcome Richard Paul